HANAMI 花見

Hanami is one of the events that Japanese people look forward to the most in the spring season.

Cherry blossoms, which bloom with the arrival of spring, can be seen everywhere in Japan, and are a very beautiful and representative sight of Japan.

‘Hana’ = flower, ‘mi’ = view.

For about two or three weeks while the cherry blossoms are in bloom, people gather under the trees, spread out their lunch boxes, toast with sake, and celebrate the arrival of spring.

Celebrate the coming of spring with a “Hanami Bento” and “Hanami Chirashi”!

In Wellington, cherry blossom trees can be seen in some places, but of course it’s not just about the cherry blossoms, you can also observe spring plants, explore the forests, go to the beach, feel the spring weather in your garden, how about our bentos to accompany your spring joy in many different ways ?
